Mandatory Trainings: All UC Merced employees, including academic title codes, are required to complete a series of mandatory annual trainings per University of California policy. UC Merced Extension reserves the right to terminate any and all instructors, course developers, and/or university mentors for failure to complete required training on or by the specified date. All required trainings are assigned in the UC Learning Center.

Additional notes and Comments:

By signing this document, you affirm your adherence to the terms and specifics for this course (section). The University will pay the compensation minus tax and other required withholdings. Any expenses incurred by me are not reimbursable unless approved by the Program Contact Person in advance.

I understand that all agreements with UCM Extension are on a course-by-course basis, and that I have no guarantee, expressed or implied, of continued employment or involvement with University Extension in any capacity beyond the course, which is the subject of this agreement.

I understand that compensation under this agreement is contingent upon successful completion of the University hiring process.

I accept this proposal. I understand that UCM Extension has the right to move the location of the course or to terminate this agreement at any time if: (a) enrollments in the course are insufficient; (b) required course administrative or pedagogical responsibilities with respect to this or any prior course have not been met; (c) UCM Extension and I fail to reach agreement on the resources to be made available for a course, including but not limited to room location, marketing, or program assistance; (d) teaching or other performance in a course is deemed unsatisfactory; or (e) I have violated the policies, procedures, or guidelines of the University.
